FOR ATTORNEY KING. Impressive Scene in Court at Bridge port as Sentence Was Pronounced.

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 7.—Clitus H. King, attorney and state representative, was sentenced to six years in state's prison this afternoon by Judge william H. Williams on two counts of forgery. The scene in court was an impressive one, the judge pronouncing sentence as tears dimmed the eyes of King's personal friends who had gathered there. As King plead-ed guilty to the charges no appeal wil be allowed.

King, whose home is in Fairfield, dis-appeared several months ago and soon afterwards there were stories of al-leged manipulations of mortgages for large amounts. An investigation fol-lowed and a warrant was sworn out. He was a fugitive from justice for weeks. After traveling through the middle west, he returned to Bridgeport recently and surrendered to the authori-

Mr. Marshall gave the major credit for Pintelen's failure to the stand for Rintelen's failure to the stand taken by high officials in the labor or-

"Rintelen only succeeded in corrupt-g some subordinates," Mr. Marshall "and he was beautifully doublecrossed. The real labor leaders took prompt steps to check his activities. Save for a few small strikes, none of his efforts were successful, and all the strikes he did instigate were quickkilled by the good men at the head the unions. I am not prepared to state just how much money Rintelen expended, but it ran into hundreds of thousands of dollars. He had $500,-000 to his credit in one bank."

ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE HARRISON DRUG ACT.

Scores of Prosecutions Depend Upon Outcome of Arguments Being Made.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Scores of pros-ecutions for alleged violations of the Harrison drug act of 1914, regulating the traffic and use of opium, depend upon the outcome of arguments begun today before the supreme court as to he scope of the law. Assistant Attorney General Wallace explained the government's interpretation that the act made it unlawful for ton that the act made it unlawful for any person not registered to have opi-um in his possession. Attorneys for Jin Fuey Moy, indicted in Pittsburgh on charges of having opium in his possession, contended that the law was limited in operation to drug dealers and did not extend to consumers. The federal district court in western Pennsylvania decided against the gov-ernment, which claims that unless the supreme court reverses the lower court traffic in opium will be inevitably di-verted from reputable physicians and druggists to the infamous class of persons who for gain are willing to pan-der to one of the most lamentable and miserable weaknesses of human na-

Demonstrations of Approval.

Frequent demonstrations of approval greeted the president's declaration of the manifest duty of America to "remain studiously neutral" toward the warring nations abroad, his assertion of friendship for Mexico, his urgent recommendations for an increased merchant marine, the suggestion of degislation for furthering the interests of the people of the Philippines and Porto Rico, and his recommendations for increasing revenues.

Cheers from Every Part of Hall. But chief attention centered about the delineation of the plans for national defense, the promotion of Pan-Americanism and the virility of the resident's attack upon who, he said, had brought the good name of the government into contempt. He delivered his denunciation in terse phrases, and congress seemed to hang on a congress seemed to hang the contempt of the message and the Latin-Americans expressed special gratification over the on every word.
